

BEREAVEMENT

— Your guide —

Look after yourself and those close to you

There is no blueprint for how to handle bereavement. No timescales for grief.

Bereavement can bring out strong emotions from intense anger, to numbness, exhaustion and the aching pain of loss. Some people can also feel very isolated after the loss of a life partner, family member or close friend. From experience we know that it can help to share some of that journey with someone who understands loss and grief and can offer support.

If you think it would be useful for you or anyone in your family, young or old, let us put you in touch with someone who can help.

When to get help

You might wish to consider asking for support if you are experiencing any of the following:

- Difficulty coping with intense feelings
- Feeling unusually tired, confused and unable to concentrate
- Feeling numb or empty quite a long time after the death
- Having nightmares or difficulties sleeping
- Your relationships seem to be suffering badly
- Constantly feeling angry or irritable
- Smoking, drinking or taking medication or drugs more than usual
- Your work attendance or performance is suffering

You might find these resources helpful. The Bible or indeed one of the books we stock for our clients. These include:

- Grief Works by Julia Samuel
- The Grief Survival Guide by Jeff Brazier
- New Journeys Now Begin by Tom Gordon
- A Grief Observed by C S Lewis
- The Bible
- Is Daddy Coming Home In A Minute? by Elke & Alex Barber

SHOCK - "I CAN'T BELIEVE IT'S HAPPENED."

The Lord Jesus Christ said “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid. I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart. I have overcome the world.”

John 14:27, 16:33

FEAR - "HOW WILL I COPE?"

I am the Lord, your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you, “Do not fear, I will help you.”

Isaiah 41:13

God said: “Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.”

Joshua 1:9

LONELY - "I FEEL SO ALONE."

The Lord is close to the broken-hearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.

Psalm 34:18

LOST - "I'M CONFUSED."

When Jesus saw Mary weeping and the Jews who had come along with her also weeping, he was deeply moved in spirit and troubled. “Where have you lain him?” he asked. “Come and see, Lord,” they replied. Jesus wept. Then the Jews said, “See how he loved him!”

John 11: 33-36

JESUS DIED AND ROSE AGAIN TO FREE US FROM THE FEAR OF DEATH

Jesus said: “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies.”

John 11:25

GOD'S LOVE IS STRONGER THAN DEATH

“...neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

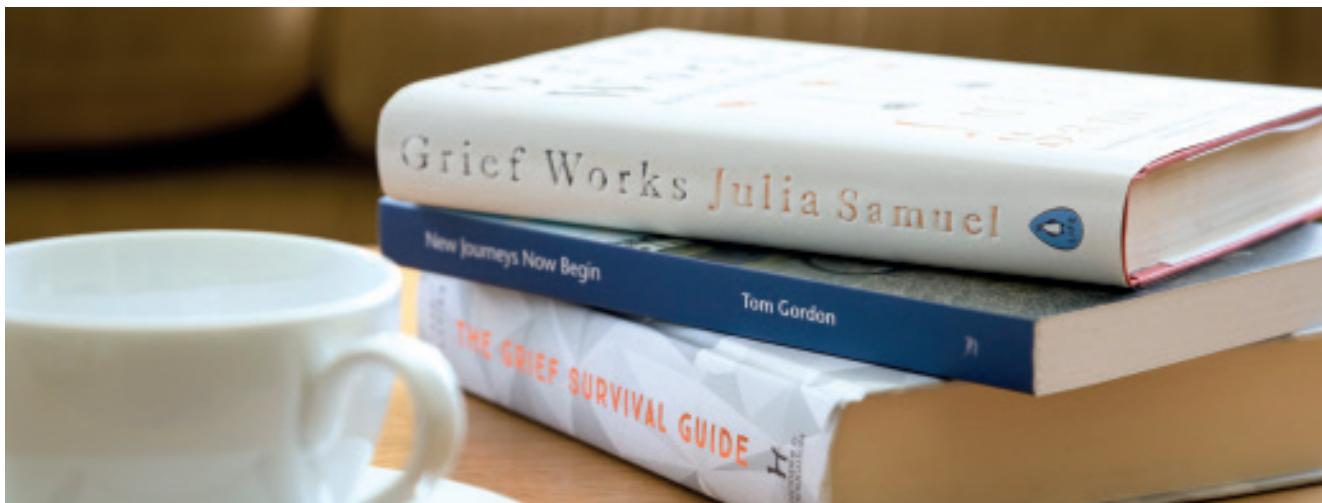

Romans 8: 38-39

LIVING WITH LOSS IS PAINFUL, BUT WITH GOD THERE IS HOPE

Jesus said: “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.”

Matthew 11:28

Bereavement: Your guide

Acorns Bereavement Support Programme

Our Acorns Bereavement Support Programme offers reassurance and companionship through group support. The programme is open to anyone who is living with loss and there is no charge for attending. You can come on your own or bring someone with you – either way you are warmly welcomed.

Group support is a useful way to hear about the experiences of others and meet like-minded individuals who can empathise with your situation. It is up to you how much you would like to share with the group. The main thing is there is comfort to be drawn from being with others who may share the same feelings.

HOW LONG IS THE PROGRAMME?

Each programme consists of six sessions lasting an hour-and-a-half, beginning at 10.00am, 2.30pm or 7.30pm. Within each session there are opportunities to talk with one another as well as with individual members of the Acorns team.

WHAT DO THEY COVER?

1. Feelings and Possibilities – exploring aspects of loss
2. Common Questions and Reassurance - including health concerns
3. Practicalities and Decisions – nutrition, cooking and looking after ourselves
4. Money Matters – understanding financial issues
5. Making Sense of Socialising – facing the world again
6. Where to Next? – looking forward together

We've learned that people benefit most from attending a full six-week programme even if some of the topics may not seem relevant at first. Through our years of experience, finding what we have in common in bereavement is more important than the aspects of our losses which are different.

LET US PUT YOU IN TOUCH WITH TRUSTED CONTACTS

We can also put you in touch with our contacts at other national bereavement charities such as Marie Curie and Cruse Bereavement Care. Talk to us if you'd like to find out more.

ACORNS

Take it from us...

Having supported families for generations through the grieving process our best advice is to go easy on yourself.

- Take the appropriate amount of time to grieve - there is no specified time frame as each loss is unique. The important thing is to be allowed to grieve.
- Don't succumb to stereotypes about loss - as sympathetic as they are, others will never know what you're experiencing.
- Don't allow other people's opinions or experiences to influence you about what to feel, think or do.
- Treasure keepsakes - keep pictures or personal items, perhaps even create some new ones like letters or diaries.
- Take care of yourself and expect that all of your inner resources will be fully spent over and over again, over a long period of time. Be aware of your limitations while you are mourning and grieving and beyond. Don't pressure yourself to do or be anything other than who and where you are. Don't undertake too much. Save important decisions for a later time.
- Create a support system - friends and relatives who truly understand you and what you've gone through; those who you know will be there for you when you need them, to listen, to be compassionate, to support and encourage you.
- Allow yourself to heal - probably the hardest thing you will have to do.

Lean on our experience
